

SESSION RECESSES 'TIL FEBRUARY 23

Confusion Reigns During the Last Few Hours of Meeting

DUNNE AGREES TO RECESS

Action Is Taken to Continue the Life of the Centennial and Pension Commissions

EMPLOYEES WILL BE PAID

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 1.—The special session of the Illinois legislature, begun a week ago last Monday, late tonight completed most of the work for which it was called and recessed until February 23.

Confusion reigned during the last few hours of the extra-ordinary session. Early in the evening the house adopted a resolution recessing until February, but the senate amended it to provide for sine die adjournment tonight, in compliance with the wishes of Governor Dunne.

Dunne Agrees to Recess.

Under the recent ruling of the supreme court in the Ferguson case, members of the legislature cannot be members of commissions which they helped to create, after sine die adjournment of the legislature. Had the senate adjourned sine die the centennial and pension commissions, which are composed of lawmakers, would have died automatically. When Governor Dunne learned of this he agreed to have the special session recess until February, thereby continuing the life of the two commissions until that time.

The senate tonight adopted resolutions favoring another special session for the enactment of further foot and mouth appropriations and asking the federal government to reimburse the state for money paid out in foot and mouth diseases.

Would Re-Creat Commissions.

In the resolution favoring another special session, Governor Dunne was asked to include in his call provisions for the enactment of legislation re-creating the white slave investigating commission, the insurance investigating commission, the building law codification commission and the commission on uniform laws.

Indications tonight were that there will be two distinct special sessions of the legislature soon after the first of the year; one a new session which may be convened about January first to enact foot and mouth appropriations and the other the recessed session.

When the special session, which recessed tonight, reconvenes in February, members declared tonight that strenuous efforts would be made to amend the primary election law, in conformity with the wishes expressed by Governor Dunne in his call. This may result in a bitter political fight, which was averted this week when the members decided not to consider the primary law amendments before the holidays.

Employees Will Be Paid.

Through the work of the special session most of the state departments which have been embarrassed by a shortage of money because of the supreme court's recent decision in the Ferguson suit, will be able to resume their full work, and state officers and employees who have not received compensation for their labor since last July, will be paid as soon as Governor Dunne signs the bills passed.

In addition, the session enacted several corrective bills of minor importance affecting only Chicago. The Tice road bill, which would have permitted counties to assess additional taxes for road building, was defeated today. Considerable opposition developed today to the Chicago bills when they were called up on final vote in the house, and one of them was killed. Three were successful.

DES MOINES MUNICIPAL COURT ELECTION WILL BE CONTESTED

DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 1.—The municipal court election of last Monday is to be contested as the result of the official canvass of the returns late today. It was announced by leaders of the opposition to the measure. Women voted in the election and this is to be made the basis of the contest. With the women's vote the measure carried by 81 votes. Without this vote it lost by 53 votes according to the official canvass.

GIVE DINNER FOR MRS. YOUNG

Fifteen hundred in official, educational, club and civic life were invited and many tributes to the life and work of Mrs. Young were given.

CALL FOR CONVENTION OF VILLA GOVERNMENT

ELECTION OF A NEW PRESIDENT WILL BE CONSIDERED

Meeting Will Be Held in Juarez.—Time is Not Stated in Call.—Villa's Yaqui Indian Chieftain Surrenders to Carranza Officers.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 1.—A re-organization of the Villa government in Mexico and the election of a new president are to be considered at a meeting of the Villa government soon to be held at Juarez, according to announcement tonight.

The announcement made by Colonel Hipolito Villa, brother of the northern chieftain and financial agent of the Villa organization at Juarez, stated that delegates representing General Emilio Zapata would be present and that 8,000 troops now in and around Chihuahua City would be transferred to Juarez when the convention meets.

The call for the convention, the time of which was not stated, has been sent out by Lazos Chazarro, president of the Aguas Calientes convention held about a year ago and over the result of which Carranza and Villa are said to have parted. All Villa Zapata chieftains have been requested thru Chazarro to send as delegates one representative for each 1,000 troops in their command.

Delegates with military escorts, Colonel Villa said tonight, are gathering at Chihuahua City, preparatory to the trip to Juarez.

Gen. Chalejo Surrenders.

Nogales, Ariz., Dec. 1.—General Chalejo, Villa's Yaqui Indian chieftain with his entire command of 1,400 men surrendered today to Carranza army officers at Corbo, 209 miles south of here, according to a report which reached here late today.

Obregon Hurrying to Border.

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 1.—General Alvaro Obregon, convinced, it was said, that an attack would be made soon upon the weakened Carranza forces garrisoned at Agua Prieta by the superior Villa forces under General Jose Rodriguez, last reported at Fronteras, 22 miles to the south, left Nogales, Sonora by automobile late today and telephoned enroute that he expected to reach here about eleven o'clock tonight.

WILL ATTEMPT TO PUT ILLINOIS IN THE PROHIBITION COLUMN

JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 1.—Helen L. Hood, state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, announced today that with the New Year there would begin a state-wide campaign to put Illinois in the prohibition column.

Special attention will be directed to the farming districts, according to Miss Hood and every farmer is to be visited and arguments presented to convince him that the elimination of the saloon will mean better times for himself and his family.

"We are going to make this a state fight," said Miss Hood. "Chicago took the first big step when Mayor Thompson forced the saloonkeepers to obey the Sunday closing law."

RECEIPT BRINGS ABOUT CLASH BETWEEN OPPOSING COUNSEL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 1.—A receipt for $1,000 signed by Olaf Tveitmo, the San Francisco labor leader and declared by the state to represent money used to further a dynamiting conspiracy, which resulted in the blowing up of the Times building and the killing of twenty men in October, 1910, brought a clash today between opposing counsel in the trial of Mathew A. Schmidt, accused of the murder of one of the Times' victims.

The state placed C. C. Campbell of Berkeley on the stand to identify Tveitmo's signature to the receipt, which was made to John J. McNamara, confessed dynamiter and former secretary of the International association of Bridge & Structural Iron workers. The voucher credited the money to "organization purposes," which the prosecution alleges was the code phrase for dynamite work.

SENATOR POMERENE BECOMES CANDIDATE

Opposes Clarke for Post of President Pro Tem- pore of the Senate

ASSURES LIVE CONTEST

Democratic Conference Will Act on Report Proposing a Cloture Rule Today

WILL BE VIGOROUSLY FOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Senator Pomerene of Ohio became a candidate tonight for president pro tempore of the senate in opposition to Senator James P. Clark of Arkansas, who seeks re-election. The candidacy of the Ohio senator, announced after a session of the senate Democratic caucus, assures a lively contest which will be settled next Friday.

Opposition Has Been Smouldering.

Opposition to Senator Clarke had been smouldering ever since the Democratic conference began Monday because of his antagonism to the ship purchase bill at the last session. Administration leaders had sought, however, to allay this opposition for the sake of party harmony and it was not until tonight that an open fight against him developed.

Tomorrow the Democratic conference will act on the report of the special committee on rules proposing limitation of debate to prevent filibustering. The committee tonight agreed upon a cloture rule which would provide means for forcing a measure to a vote whenever filibustering tactics become apparent.

It would provide that when any senator arises and asserts the opinion that an attempt is being made to obstruct a measure and claims the right of the senate to proceed to a vote, the chair shall submit to the senate without debate the question: "Is it the sense of the senate that an attempt is being made to obstruct, hinder or delay a vote?"

If the question is decided in the affirmative it would be in order for any senator to move to fix a time for taking a vote on the pending measure and all amendments, such motion to be decided without debate.

Time to be fixed would be at least two calendar days after the making of such a motion.

Predict Vigorous Fight.

Democratic senators who oppose cloture predicted tonight that the proposed rule would be vigorously fought in the conference.

Democrats of the house ways and means committee continued their work on committee assignments which probably will be completed tomorrow. The Republicans of the house will caucus tomorrow to consider the filling of minority places on the committees.

Speaker Clark reached Washington today prepared, he said, for a long session, lasting "until the dog days."

The animal has not been seen since, although the entire county has been aroused to the danger that exists to healthy herds as long as the animal is at large.

RAILROAD REPRESENTATIVES DISCUSS FREIGHT CONGESTION

McCaig States Question of Further Embargoes is Open at the Present for Further Consideration.

New York, Dec. 1.—The freight congestion at New York and other Atlantic coast ports which has caused embargoes to be laid on export freight by some of the railroads was discussed today by a special committee of representatives of all the eastern roads.

At the close, C. Curtice McCaig, chairman of the trunk line association and of the committee, said nothing had been done beyond making a preliminary review. "It was ascertained," said McCaig, "that approximately 40,000 cars either at terminals or on lines consigned for New York. About ninety percent of these require lighterage delivery either for points in New York harbor or for export. As to embargoes while one of the roads found it necessary to embargo all export trade and some others embargoed certain commodities, the question of further embargoes is open at present for further consideration before any action will be taken."

The committee will meet again Friday.

TEUTONS CONTINUE ADVANCE IN SERBIA

Emperor William's Visit to Vienna Causes Much Speculation

BULGARS END CAMPAIGN

Announces That With Capture of Prisrend Campaign Against Serbia Has Come to Close

CROSS MONTENEGRIN FRONT

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Emperor William's visit to Vienna, which coincided with the resignation of three of the Austrian cabinet ministers is the cause of much speculation. The two events are variously assumed to be connected with the reported effort of Germany to force Austria into a German trade union, a desire of Emperor Francis Joseph to secure a separate peace thru the intervention of Pope Benedict, and a rumored dispute between Austria and Bulgaria over the division of Serbian territory. There naturally is no authoritative basis for any of these reports beyond statements in the German newspapers that Emperor William's visit was one of the highest importance.

Operations Continue Unabated.

Mean time the operations in the Balkans and the movements of the armies of the central powers continue with unabated energy. Like Germany, Bulgaria announces that with the capture of Prisrend her campaign against Serbia has come to an end, which seems to support the suggestion that, to avoid a dispute with Greece, King Ferdinand of Bulgaria has decided against the occupation of Monastir, the only town of any importance remaining in Serbian hands. Monastir was still in the hands of the Serbians until late Monday night and no news that there has been any changing there has been received since.

Austria with the assistance of German troops continues her operations against Montenegro, the frontier of which has been crossed, but not without considerable opposition from the Montenegrins who are masters in mountain warfare and who have been joined by some portions of the Serbian armies that succeeded in escaping from the invaders of their country.

Teutons Advance Across Frontier.

Battles are now being fought in that part of the Sanjak of Novi-pazar which was taken by Montenegro after the Balkan war. The Austro-Germans are advancing south from Sienica and across the frontier from Priepolje. In the north the Montenegrins claim to have defeated the Austrians in the region of Fotcha, Bosnia.

It is expected however, that Austro-Germans have provided sufficient forces to make sure of a successful campaign as they did in the case of Serbia.

In southeastern Serbia where the British, French and Serbians hold strong positions the snow still prevents any movements of importance. No news has been received of the Austrians and Germans who proceeded to Ruchuk, on the Danube river, to co-operate with the Bulgarians and Turks to oppose a possible Russian invasion thru Roumania.

Roumania's attitude Uncertain.

The attitude of Roumania is still uncertain. The latest reports say that she, like Greece, is trying to remain neutral but with two belligerent armies on her borders this, it is believed, may prove difficult.

Greece in her latest reply to the note of the entente allies insists upon the maintenance of her neutrality and independence and a final settlement of the points at issue between the Hellenic kingdom and the entente powers is not yet in sight.

Greece objects, according to despatches from Athens, to the evacuation of Saloniki by her troops, the handing over of the railroads to the entente allies and the policing by the navies of the entente powers of her coastal waters to circumvent the activities of German submarines.

The Italians continue their offensive along the Isonzo river. On the other fronts comparative calm prevails.

CAUSE OF EXPLOSION REMAINS A MYSTERY

DU PONT OFFICIALS DENY OUTSIDE AGENCY CAUSED DISASTER

Large Force of Detectives Make An All Day Investigation—Many Sensational Rumors Are Current—One Workman Is Missing.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 1.—Nothing developed today that would throw any light on the cause of the explosion at the DuPont Black powder plant near here. Officials of the DuPont company after an all day investigation by a large force of detectives deny the disaster was the work of an outside agency. An official statement issued tonight says: "We have no ground to suspect the explosion was the result of anything other than an accident. The whole thing is shrouded in mystery. Unfortunately those who might have knowledge of the cause are dead. Many sensational rumors have been current but all are groundless as far as our information goes. No placards giving warning of planned explosions were posted at Carney's Point, N. J., or along the Brandywine Creek here."

The report that government agents would investigate the affairs was news to the DuPont officials. They said they had received no information to this effect from Washington. Although a revised list of the dead placed the number at thirty it was learned tonight that Patrick Donahue, another workman, has not been seen since the disaster and it is feared he was killed.

One of the many rumors circulated here today was that men in the DuPont plants recently had discovered particles of steel shavings or bits of nails in the powder under process of manufacture. These particles of metals it was said, in passing thru one of the presses used to mould the loose powder into blocks might have caused the spark that set off the blast. These reports, however, were emphatically denied by officials of the company as were all others intimating the explosion was due to an outside agency.

MUNRO TO FILE AMENDED BILL IN ONE OF SUITS NOT ARGUED

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Fayette S. Munro, attorney for J. B. Ferguson, announced tonight that he would file tomorrow in the Sangamon county circuit court a Springfield amended bill in one of the suits not yet argued in the lower courts demanding restitution of state cash alleged to have been illegally expended.

Attorney Munro said his bill demands restitution of thousands of dollars expended without warrant of law from the committee expense funds of the last legislature.

This particular suit, which is one of five brought by Mr. Ferguson relating to committee expense funds, Mr. Munro said.

As indicated by R. L. Batts of federal counsel, in his opening address, the government proposed not only to show how the West Chester's eighteen mile charter cost the New Haven $11,000,000, but to delve into political matters connected with the amendment of the charter for the alleged benefit of the New Haven.

This however, now remains a closed book.

Mr. Batts associated the name of Tammany Hall in some of the transactions by which West Chester stock was acquired.

With this subject eliminated, the end of the government's case now entering its eighth week, came in sight. The federal attorneys began the presentation of evidence on the last but even more important phase of its case—the alleged agreement in 1912 between the New Haven and the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, whereby, it is charged, the Grand Trunk abandoned the construction of a projected line which would have connected its subsidiary, the Central Vermont, with Providence, R. I. This alleged agreement constitutes the principal unlawful act charged against the defendants as having been committed within the period covered by the statute of limitations and counsel consider that the whole case virtually hinges upon its proof.

DECLARATION OF LONDON HAS NO INTERNATIONAL VALIDITY

LONDON, Dec. 1.—"The Declaration of London has no international validity and adoption of the declaration by an order-in-council does not involve the creation of an international tribunal," said the Marquis of Lansdowne, Minister without portfolio in a series of questions put by the Earl of Portsmouth in the House of Lords today.

DRAFT NEW SHIPPING BILL.

JUDGE HUNT THROWS TESTIMONY OUT

Declares New Haven De- fendants Innocent of One of Principal Charges

END OF CASE IN SIGHT

Present Evince Regarding Alleged Agreement Between New Haven and Grand Trunk

IMPORTANT PHASE OF CASE

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—William Rockefeller and his ten co-defendants accused of criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in connection with their conduct of the affairs of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad were declared innocent today of one of the principal charges preferred against them by the government. This was the alleged unlawful acquisition in 1907 of the New York, West Chester & Boston railway company, a line with a new York charter, but which the government charges was bought by the New Haven to prevent its extension into New England as a competitor.

Fails to Show Criminal Intent.

Judge Hunt, presiding at the trial, threw the government's testimony out of court, ruling that it had failed to show that the defendants had any criminal intent in acquiring the road. This was at the end of two days of argument by counsel and testimony by Charles S. Mellen and others as to whether the road was projected and acquired for the purpose of carrying on inter-state commerce. The court held that while the original projectors to the road may have had some such purpose in mind there was nothing to show that the New Haven directors had such a purpose in acquiring it—in effect that the West Chester was an intra-state line.

While the government was granted the opportunity to submit further evidence to prove contention Judge Hunt made it plain that it would have to be of the strongest character to upset his ruling.

Remains a Closed Book.

As indicated by R. L. Batts of federal counsel, in his opening address, the government proposed not only to show how the West Chester's eighteen mile charter cost the New Haven $11,000,000, but to delve into political matters connected with the amendment of the charter for the alleged benefit of the New Haven.

This however, now remains a closed book.

A press dispatch says that "both parties will seek campaign material during the coming session of Congress." No need for the Republican party to do much searching. Its own record in the upbuilding of American industry during a period of sixteen years of protective tariff, its achievements in the enactment of such commendable legislation as the Postal savings bank law, the parcel post, the pure food law, Panama canal construction, the reclamation law, conservation, the income tax amendment, the popular election of senators amendment, and other measures too numerous to mention, furnish an abundance of affirmative campaign material. The Democrats have, in two years, supplied plenty of material with which to attack them. Extravagance, resort to the spoils system, are matters of public record and require no searching.

Mexican Peace Seems Near.

About the best evidence that peace is thought to be near at hand in Mexico is afforded by the fact that officials of the national railroads of Mexico are now visiting various cities in the United States. These officials are assuring merchants that they are now prepared to resume traffic between Mexico and the United States.

THE MAGAZINES

The magazines have known a slump; they're gravitating to the dump. Ten years ago their lives were gay, and they controlled the right of way. Their advertising made them thick, and heavy as a paving brick. Their circulation boomed along, and life was just one grand sweet song. Of course the publishers were sure their bed of roses would endure, but in this world, wherein we stay, conditions come and pass away. The moving pictures make a hit, and folks who used to read and knit beside the fire, on wintry nights, now drift downtown to see the sights. The auto came and seemed to be a family necessity. And people toured to distant scenes, who used to read the magazines. Life's business now is just to roam; no one has any use for home; our thoughts are all on "record speed," and so we haven't time to read. And so it is the magazines sell slower than old cans of beans. Where once the newspaper piled them high, to lure the eager public eye, he now lays in but three or four, and seldom has to order more. It's sad to see the magazines immersed in clammy soup tureens!

ed States and that all that is needed is the co-operation of the roads in this country. Still another indication of expected peace is found in the fact that several dozen lively St. Louis merchants will soon leave on a journey to Mexico. They will follow various lines of railroads from the border south and will visit various inland cities to give assurance there to the merchants that their trade is wanted and will be promptly and efficiently cared for.

An Auto Highway Dream.

The latest project in road building is a concrete air line connecting Chicago and St. Louis to be used exclusively by automobiles. The proposal is to have a concrete road with a raised curbing in the center which would divide the highway and give the same effect as double tracking for railroads. It is proposed to construct this highway by organizing a company in which automobile owners shall be the stockholders and to pay the cost of maintenance by collecting a toll of one half cent a mile at gates stationed ten miles apart. It is estimated that a right of way could be secured without excessive cost but the project is not yet far enough advanced to present any figures as to construction cost. Because of the difficulty of securing a good foundation on a good deal of rich Illinois soil it will probably be found when all the figures are secured that this dream of a good roadway would require so many millions to have it realized that the total expense will seem appalling.

A New Idea on "Chickens" Rights.

Stray chickens (the poultry yard kind) have been the cause of many a neighborhood row. In times past the popular belief has been that it was the bounden and lawful duty of the owner to keep his chickens at home. This theory has even gone so far as to include the belief that one could with impunity kill chickens that might wander into his own yard and scratch up his flowers or vegetables.

Legal decision was recently made which throws some interesting light on this question and gives some new phases to the neighborhood chicken nuisance. In the case mentioned a man killed the fowls that wandered into his yard after having several times warned the owner that they must be kept at home. The owner brought suit and the resulting court finding was that the householder who seriously objects to having chickens in his yard must so fence it that they will be kept out. In other words, the burden is placed not upon the owner of wandering chickens but upon the persons who are sensitive about having their gardens or yards damaged in this way.

Honors to Mrs. Young.

The dinner given in Chicago Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Ella Flag Young, who is to retire as superintendent of the Chicago schools, was a fitting recognition of her great work. The occasion was in reality the celebration of Mrs. Young's golden jubilee for she has given fifty years of service to the Chicago schools and they have been years of real usefulness. She began teaching in 1862 and had such ideals of her work that she went constantly forward in the work of preparation. She occupied positions of constantly increasing importance until in 1909 she became the superintendent. The same devotion to duty and the same breadth of view which had characterized her work in positions of less responsibility applied to her during her superintendency. The assemblage last night was large and represented the municipal, educational, church, club and civic interests of Chicago, and all those present seemed to realize that they were paying only due homage to one of the most notable figures in the educational world.

Pinchot Strong for the Allies.

Gifford Pinchot is not only a strong advocate of preparedness in this country but is open and above board in his declaration that victory for the allies is vastly important to this country. In a recent address Mr. Pinchot discussed the question, "Should we care who wins the war?" and he proceeded in a very strong way to argue that the United States has great reason for caring. He declared that victory for the Germans would mean that they would be so intoxicated with power and the desire to rule the world that it would mean to meet German arms unless we were fully ready to accede to German ideas and conditions. In emphasizing this fact he said, "World peace will remain a dream if Germany wins. The people there are governed by military caste whose God is power. The German ruling class hates us of the United States as bitterly as it does the English. If Germany wins, a people who do not understand our thought will be dominant in the world and we shall have to meet their views or their arms." Pinchot maintains that the allies on the other hand are fighting for civilization and democracy, that the rights of the weak everywhere shall not be trampled on by the strong, and that men may govern themselves in peace. "To maintain these principles," he said "the allies are paying in blood and treasure, in suffering, in sorrow, in toil and loss, a price beyond our understanding."

More For State To Do.

While extensive preparations for the proper observance of the centennial of Illinois three years hence are being made by the centennial commission, the 97th anniversary of the birth of the state will not be permitted to pass unnoticed. A program has been prepared for Friday in which state officials will take part. In addition to the formal program there will be observance in many of the schools in conformity with recommendations made by the state superintendent of public instruction. While a period of ninety-seven years seems long, as related to the growth of states and nations it is a short period and so Illinois can be given credit for having attained such marvelous growth in less than a century of time.

In agriculture, in manufactures, in social and educational conditions, Illinois occupies a high place. There is much in the past years in which the citizens can take pride, yet there should not come the feeling that the height of aspirations has been reached. There is need for some new legislation especially as related to taxation, elections and child welfare. Then the good roads question is always with us and it is an acknowledged fact that the state has not kept pace with others in the matter of highway improvement. Yet much has been accomplished during the years and the old state is entitled to the credit but this is not the time to rest upon laurels and especial efforts should be made to accomplish needed advancement during the next three years, that the centennial celebration may be the more notable and commemorative of accomplishments really great.

Churchill Has Birthday.

Winston Spencer Churchill, the brilliant young English statesman who recently quit the cabinet for the army, was 41 years old Tuesday. Since the days of Pitt England has not developed such a precocious leader. And it is long since she had such a romantic, many-sided minister. When the storm of criticism of his conduct of the office of First Lord of the Admiralty broke over him a few weeks ago, Churchill was not caught napping. He refused to be the "goat," as American slang puts it, and he paid back coin for coin the blame for adversities of British sea warfare that were laid to him. Then he spectacularly resigned from the cabinet and joined his regiment at the front in France. Churchill was born on November 30, 1874, the product of an Anglo-American union. His father was the late Lord Randolph Henry Spencer Churchill, and his mother was formerly Miss Jennie Jerome, daughter of the late Leonard Jerome of New York, and a cousin of William Travers Jerome, former district attorney of New York. Young Churchill was educated at Harrow and Sandhurst and entered the army. He longed for adventures, and so went to Cuba and joined the Spanish forces there, winning a decoration. Then he went to India and earned other medals. He became a war correspondent in the Egyptian campaign, and later in South Africa. During the latter campaign he was taken prisoner, but escaped after six weeks. On his return he won a seat in Parliament. He was made Under Secretary of State for the Colonies in 1903, and two years later President of the Board of Trade. In 1910 he became Home Secretary. In 1911 he was called to the office of First Lord of the Admiralty, and the height of his career was reached when the breaking out of the European War last year found the British fleet prepared and gathered in the North Sea. Later developments brought bitter criticism, particularly against the Dardanelles campaign which the British Navy inaugurated and the dispatch of the disastrous expedition to Belgium. Churchill was blamed, whether rightfully or wrongfully, and when the coalition cabinet was formed last May, he was reduced to the chancellorship of the Duchy of Lancaster. But his adventurous nature would not permit of inactivity or the poignards of his critics, and so he is a soldier again.

TANDY STANDS OVER ALL FOR CENTER JOB.

The Atlanta American of Sunday, Nov. 28, has the following to say of George Tandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Tandy of this city:

"Starting out with the position of center, a snapper-back as he should be called, for nowadays he is rarely enough, the real center of the line, we find a lot of good men to put in healthy claims. They are Henderson, at Georgia; Scott, at Sewanee; McLean, at Tennessee; Williams, at Vanderbilt; Robinson, at Auburn; Phillips, at Tech, besides Tandy, of North Carolina.

"To be quite frank about it, I'm glad enough there is this fellow Tandy, for it would be a Dickens of a task to choose from among the others mentioned. When I come to Tandy, however, I heave a sigh of relief, for here is a man who ranks a full head above the others. He has the weight, the speed, experience strength and fighting spirit. He gets into an offensive play better than any or the rest, he is undoubtedly the best defensive man of them all, his handling of the ball is faultless, and then he comes back out of the line and kicks field goals with any other player of the year. If these qualifications are not sufficient to entitle him to a seat I wouldn't know what else or more to ask for."

Mrs. J. H. McCune of Ipava is the guest of Miss Eleanor Moore, 829 West State street.

M. M. McComb, formerly of the south part of this county and now of Abingdon, is in the city and county look after some interests he has here.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Mahon Hostess To Sinclair Club
Miss Nellie Mahon entertained the members of the Sinclair Country club Wednesday afternoon and after the regular business there was carried out a social hour enlivened by a program of informal musical numbers. When the roll was called each member made reply with suggestions for the observance of Christmas. Delightful refreshments were served. The club will hold one more meeting before the holidays.

Reception for Converts At Litterberry Church
A reception for the twenty converts who were recently received at the short meeting held by the Rev. C. G. Cantrall recently at Oak Ridge church, and who have since placed their membership in the Christian church at Litterberry, was held Wednesday evening in the Litterberry church building with a large number of the congregations present. Remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by Rev. Mr. Cantrall who had begun the Oak Ridge meeting for four days only, but who met with such favorable reception that it was continued for full two weeks.

Entertained Friends.
Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Coyle entertained a small company of friends recently at their home on Oak street. Dancing was the amusement of the evening. Music being furnished by the player piano. Later in the evening an oyster supper with all the trimmings was served.
The guest list included: Mrs. Amelia Coyle, this city, Miss Gertrude Nergenah, chapin, Miss Marie Eichenbinder, Peoria, Messrs. Edward Welsh, Springfield, Leonard Young, Arnold, Gordon, Jumper, Waltonville, O. A. Dickies, Chapin, and W. T. Samples, Sinclair.

Gives Successful Supper and Bazar
Probably the most successful event ever given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Church of Our Savior was that of Wednesday evening. The event was a supper and bazar. Over five hundred people were served with supper and all pronounced it one of the best ever given. The menu consisted of roast chicken with dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberries, pickles, potato salad, baked beans, slaw, coffee, cake and other things. The waitresses were generous and if anyone failed to get all they could eat it was their own fault.
It was the intention to hold the bazar for two days but there was such a large crowd present and the buying was so liberal that everything was sold out. Owing to this fact there will be no bazar this evening.

The general committee in charge was composed of Miss Mary Wagner, chairman, Miss Rose Devlin, Miss Gussie Duffner, Miss McGinnis, Miss Elizabeth Pieper and Miss Agnes Teeffey. Miss Rose Devlin was chairman of the committee in charge of the novelty booth. Miss Mary Lon organ, chairman of the candy booth committee, Miss Mary Reid, chairman of the apron booth committee, Miss Gussie Duffner, manager of the country store and Martin Kinney had charge of the check room.
Music was furnished throughout the evening by Powers orchestra. The affair passed off without a hitch and the young ladies realized a goodly sum from the supper and bazar.

Entertains Pisgah Missionary Society.
The December meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of Union Baptist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Beckman of Pisgah. Dinner was served to fourteen guests and shortly after the conclusion of an excellent meal Mrs. Ella Samples took the chair, presiding in place of Mrs. Euphie Wood who was kept at home by illness. Mrs. Mary Wood was heard in an interesting presentation of the subject, "Africa." And there followed an instrumental number by Mrs. Mary Ausmus. "Truce for a Day," was the title of a reading by Minnie Curry.
The next meeting will be at the home of A. A. Curry, Wednesday evening, Jan. 5. Each member is requested to bring a pie and an article for the parcel post sale.

SCHIFFMANN'S NEW BRONCHIAL REMEDY

For Bronchial Asthma, Whoopin g Cough, Bronchitis and Coughs.

M. E. Gilbert is willing to lose the profit which would be made on a bottle of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, and announces that they will sell a regular 50c bottle of this remedy for 25c (half price) to persons presenting the coupon below, but only for the first bottle to each person.
Although a remedy for Bronchial Affections, and Coughs or Colds might not have yet been required so far this season, it is more than likely that some member of the family will need some before it is over, and it will pay to take advantage of this opportunity now and buy a bottle at half price, instead of putting off until later and paying full price.

While losing money, they have decided to give the public an opportunity of trying this most excellent, successful, new remedy at no greater price than they would have to pay for almost any ordinary cough remedy, and are positively certain that it will be found the best medicine ever used for Coughs, Colds, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Whoopin g Cough, Croup and Hoarseness.

Besides having a chance of securing the very best remedy possible, at half price, you also get as much as would cost you $2.00 to $3.00 for the same quantity of ordinary, old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, because a 2-ounce bottle makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonsful) when mixed at home with simply a pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water, as directed. It is altogether different from any other medicine. It positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic, as do most cough medicines. It is most pleasant to take and absolutely the best and safest for children.

Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy, as if it does not give perfect satisfaction and even more--if it is not found the best remedy ever used for any of the above complaints, go back and the above druggist will refund your 25c just the same as with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador. Can anything be fairer? You will be the sole judge and your money is not wanted if you are not satisfied. Better buy a bottle at once, while fresh in memory, otherwise you might forget it. The cost could also be reduced by inducing a neighbor or some friend to buy half the quantity.

TWENTY-FIVE CENT COUPON--NO. 4.

This coupon and 25c is good for one (only) 50c bottle of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant at M. E. Gilbert's if your name and address is filled in.

EAGLES ELECT OFFICERS; CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Lodge Has Seen Large Growth in Its Twelve Years of Existence—Officers Elected.

Jacksonville Aerie No. 509 Fraternal Order of Eagles at the regular meeting Wednesday evening held its annual election of officers. Incidental to the election it also was the twelfth anniversary of the organization of the Aerie. The Aerie was organized and came into existence Dec. 1, 1903. William H. McCarthy was the organizer, he having become a member of the order at Alton.

The aerie had on its charter the names of many men well known in the professional and business life of the community. The charter granted has the name of Timothy Sullivan of New York, Grand Worthy President, better known as "Big" Tim Sullivan. The local aerie has shown a steady growth since its organization and has paid out thousands of dollars in sick and funeral benefits.

The following are past presidents of the aerie in the order of their election. William H. McCarthy, Michael McGinnis, George A. Harry, Henry Herring, William H. Braner, Ben C. Andrews, H. E. Frye, Frank U. Correa.

Jacksonville aerie has also been honored in the state aerie. At the present time Frank U. Correa is Worthy State President, having advanced from the office of Worthy State Chaplain to the highest office in the state. He also has the distinction of being the only man elected to the office Chaplain in the state aerie who advanced successively thru the chairs to Worthy State President. Prior to his election as Worthy State President members had been elected from the floor to the office and from outside and inside guards. His election probably established a precedent which will be followed in the state aerie in the future.

The officers elected Wednesday evening are as follows:

Worthy President—Ralph R. Stringam. Worthy Vice-President—Frank D. Kelly.

Worthy Chaplain—A. A. McCollister.

Secretary—F. W. Doherty. Treasurer—Michael McGinnis. Inside Guard—L. P. Burke. Outside Guard—H. E. Johnson. Physician—G. O. Webster. Worthy Conductor—John O'Brien. Trustee for three years—James E. Toblin.

GREAT BILLIARD THREE-CUSHION MATCH IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 1.—No three-cushion billiard match in the history of the angle game has excited the interest of the cue fans thruout the country like the contest between Champion Alfred De Oro of New York and August Kleckhefer of Chicago. De Oro is the favorite thruout the east, but the Chicago player is going at a great pace and he will give the cuban a close run from beginning to end. Unless De Oro can show his old-time form, he is due for a defeat, is the opinion of Chicago billiardists.

The championship of the world at the three-cushion game is at stake. The contestants will play a string of fifty points each night. The winner, besides carrying off the 1,000 diamond emblem, will take down $500 in stakes.

De Oro has held the title more times than any other player. He recently came into possession of the jewel trophy thru forfeiture. William B. Huey of Chicago turning the crown over to him after winning it from George Moore of New York, who had defended it successfully against De Oro.

MEMBERS OF FOOT BALL TEAM ARE TENDERED TURKEY SUPPER

Spirit of Good Cheer Pervades Gathering at Which Supt. Collins and Mr. Huber Are Hosts—Fierke Elected Captain.

Nineteen men received letters last night and the men who next year will return to play football for J. H. S. declared their purpose to battle as one man for the victorious name of their school, at the banquet given to the team by W. H. P. Huber, the coach, and Charles E. Collins, the superintendent, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Collins on South Church street. A delicious turkey dinner of three courses was served in a dining room appropriately decorated with the Jacksonville high school colors. Prof. T. P. Carter, faculty manager, bestowed the crimson "J's". John Fierke was elected by acclamation captain of the team next year and responded with brief words expressive of the team's hope for a successful year. The company then adjourned to the parlors where a social hour, with music, was enjoyed. Assisting in the dining room were Misses Ruth Collins, Faye Rodgers, Edith Rodgers and Aileen Fitch; John Walton Collins and John Houston. Members of the faculty who have part in the school athletic administration were present at the banquet.

Ralph I. Dunlap was present as a special guest and in the first speech of the evening spoke words of compliment for the members of a team which, not generally victorious, did not lessen their efforts nor falter in courage. Very effective was his tribute to the man who fights the losing battle with the same high courage as he does the victorious contest. As alumni member of the board of control of Illinois college Mr. Dunlap spoke in appreciation of the spirit of increasing good fellowship which is being shown toward the college by students of the high school.

The men receiving "J's" were Howard Reynolds, captain; Homer Reynolds, Roy Sorrells, Frank Herring, Robert Priest, Frank Robinson, Arthur King, Russell Arter, John Fierke, Glidden Reeve, Paul Scott, William Miller, Harvey Sandberg, Lloyd Cully, Albin Molohon, Paul Walker, Harold Ferguson, Claude Cully and James Haigh.

Mr. Collins acted as toastmaster and at the close of Mr. Dunlap's talk he himself reviewed briefly the history of this year's season, mentioning the disadvantages under which the team was compelled to labor and emphasizing the hopeful outlook for football in 1916. He called attention to the unwavering support given by faculty and student body, loyal in defeat as well as in victory. The toastmaster called then upon Prof. Carter, Clarence Fuller, J. W. Priest and Hume Whitacre for brief remarks on the subject of the evening.

NAVY HAS WIND TUNNEL FOR EXPERIMENT WORK

DESIGNERS TEST OUT AEROPLANE MODELS.

Speedometer Is Being Worked Out Which Will Show Aviators the Exact Speed at Which They Are Traveling.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The largest plant in the world for aeronautical experiments is at the Washington navy yard here and is known as the wind tunnel. The scheme was worked out by navy designers and a huge weight-carrying biplane soon to be constructed at the yard will be built on data gathered from the tests made in the big wooden box where an eighty mile gale can be created and its effect upon the planes of a proposed aircraft can be weighed to within 1-2,000 of a pound. The present tunnel is a temporary one and navy officers hope that Congress will authorize the construction of a permanent aeroplane experiment plant when the value of the scheme is fully realized. The tunnel is eight feet square inside and at one end is an electric fan driven by a 500 horsepower motor. At the opposite end are baffles, or carefully built apertures to allow the blasts created by the fan to escape without generating any back pressure to destroy the value of the experiment.

Coming down thru the roof of the tunnel is a metal lever to which are attached the model planes to be tested. These are about a foot long, representing the full sweep of a sixty foot lifting surface. They are modeled in exact reproduction of the real planes and can be set at any angle. Above the tunnel is the weighing machine, an intricate system of levers and fulcrums leading finally to the indicator needle, swaying along a graduated quadrant where the divisions are so minute that they must be read with a magnifying glass. The mechanism is so delicately adjusted that a pressure of 1-2,000 part of a pound will be noted by the vibrations of the needle.

When the plane model to be tested has been set, the big fan is started and a wind force is developed in the tunnel that can be increased or decreased at will. Step by step the operator notes the weights shown by the scale for winds of various intensity and with the plane set at various angles. From his data he then plots the curve of the lifting power of the plane and the power necessary to drive an aircraft equipped with planes of that type at any desired speed. The results also will show the surface friction of the air against various kinds of material used in plane construction.

By means of the tunnel an aeroplane speedometer is being worked out which will show aviators the exact speed at which they are traveling, indicated on a dial as with an automobile instrument. This is of great importance to air men as the stability of their craft depends largely upon speed and any decrease in speed as shown by the indicator would give warning of engine trouble before the motor actually went dead.

Much experimental work for private aircraft builders is being done at the government wind tunnel and a systematic series of experiments has been planned to contribute data of inestimable value to aeroplane constructors generally when compiled in tables.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK.

Manchester, England.—The Manchester Municipal School of Technology, which has as its principal J. C. Maxwell Garnett, late fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, has a most complete schedule of technical courses for which the institution has one of the most complete sets of practical appliances to be found, printing, photography, mining and other technological subjects. The library of this municipal school has eight thousand volumes and two thousand pamphlets relating solely to applied science and technology.

Cambridge, Mass.—The report from the state of Baroda, in India, that there are now 3088 educational institutions there, including one arts college, four high schools and fifteen special institutions, recalls the fact that Baroda is the only state in India with a compulsory education law. It is also recalled here that the ruler, the Gaekwar of Baroda, sent his son to Harvard. The young "Gick" as he was called here, was one of the most popular men who ever came from out of the Far East to Harvard. He took a deep interest in education, and went deeply into American methods. That his influence has been felt in the growth of education among his people is shown by the report from Baroda.

West Point, N. Y.—In a recent address before the New York State Historical society at West Point, Commissioner of Education John H. Finley expressed the opinion of many educators relative to military training in the schools. "I have objected to introducing military training into our public schools as a means of conscripting children and youth for a service which assumed the continuance of the very thing which we are trying to exterminate in our schools; but I have ardently advocated as serious discipline in our schools as we expect of those who are to serve their country as soldiers."

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25 Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff and Doubles Beauty of Your Hair

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. for Mexico's revolution is the lack of popular education, says Dr. Andres Osuna, the new superintendent of Schools of Mexico City, who has brought 150 school teachers to Boston and other American cities to observe the educational methods in practical use. "There is another Mexican revolution of which little is known. It is the bloodless battle for a new and better method of popular education. Constant revolutions have always been in the way of education in Mexico. During the Diaz administration, education was left to local initiative, and it was only in a very few cities that proper attention was given to this important need. In fact the greater part of the state neglected their schools. The Constitutional government is contemplating the organization of a general office in the City of Mexico which may correspond to the Commissioner of Education in the United States, and a certain amount of money is to be distributed from the federal revenues for the betterment of public schools."

Detroit, Mich.—The new engineering building of the University of Detroit is now completed, and the alumni association is giving a dinner tonight to recognize the dedication of the new structure. Dr. James J. Walsh, dean of the College of Medicine of Fordham University, New York, will be the principal speaker.

New York.—The official sanction of college presidents has been placed on the students' camps for military training. At a recent meeting here of college heads, presided over by Dr. John Grier Hibben of Princeton, it was decided not only to endorse the student camps but to recommend them to their students.

"We regard this movement as in no way militaristic," declared one of the college heads. "Its object is to train the students of our colleges and therefore serve a useful purpose to the country. member of the firm of Morrison, Whitlock & Lippincott, Rev. Jackson had several times occasion to call on Mr. Morrison with reference to a mortgage on the church property held by Mr. Morrison. He was the first intelligent colored man the writer had met. In response to the inquiry as to how long he had lived in the north Mr. Jackson said that soon after he came into this section he was going across country on horseback and fell in conversation with some men who were measuring ground and driving stakes. A colored boy seemed a sort of curiosity to them and they plied him with all sorts of questions. Among other things they asked his name and, when told, one of the men remarked that he must be the one this town was named for as they were laying off the town of Jacksonville. I did not understand Mr. Jackson to have taken the statement in earnest but as a jocose remark, the name being already selected before hand.

REUBEN JONES FOUND GUILTY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Jury Returns verdict of Seventy-five Days in Jail and Fine of $50.—Lewis-LaCrosse Lumber Co. Case Argued.

The jury in the case of the people against Reuben Jones charged with assault with intent to kill returned into court with a verdict finding the defendant guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. The case was given to the jury about noon Wednesday and the verdict sentenced Jones to 75 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

During the afternoon the court also heard the arguments of the attorneys in the case of Earl Lewis against the La Crosse Lumber company. This case resulted from an injury Lewis sustained while loading lumber in yards of the La Crosse Lumber company several months ago. Lewis was in the employ of the city and went to get lumber from the company. The attorney for the defendant, Kirby, Wilson and Brockhouse entered a special plea in the case and the attorney for the plaintiff, John M. Butler, demurred to the plea. John J. Reeve, city attorney also appeared in the case with Mr. Butler. The defendant's attorneys contend that Lewis has no redress against them as he was in the employ of the city and that they are liable. That if the LaCrosse Lumber company is liable that it would be thru action by the city to recover whatever damages were paid to Lewis. Some fine points of law were brought out. Judge Jones took the matter under advisement until today when he will render a decision. The following orders were entered.

Peoples.
People vs. Reuben Jones, assault with intent to kill. Jury return verdict finding the defendant guilty of assault with deadly weapon in manner charged in the indictment. Court sentences defendant to serve 75 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Same vs. Art Andrews, Mike Hopper and Lloyd Hare, burglary and larceny. Defendant Lloyd Hare enters into recognizance in the sum of $1,000 in open court and is discharged from custody and cause continued.

Same vs. Riley Bailey, larceny. Scire Facias ordered to issue against the defendant and his sureties re-

MAXWELL DOUBLES

PRODUCTION RATE

Adding Mammoth Building to its Plant on Oakland Avenue Detroit—Covers Four Acres.

Detroit, Dec. 1.—Ground has been broken at the Maxwell Motor Company's Oakland Ave. plant for one of the largest building operations undertaken for some time by the Detroit automobile industry.

The new Maxwell addition is to be 860 feet long by 130 feet wide, and will cover practically four acres of ground.

Like the present buildings of the big group, it will be one-story high, with saw-tooth roof of glass and tile. The materials are brick and steel with cement floor. Eighty days have been allowed for the building operation.

On January 22, when the contract or turns the building over complete, according to schedule, the Maxwell Company's facilities will rise from a capacity of 250 to 500 cars daily.

For Last Manufacturing Step.
The new building will be devoted solely to assembly purposes. Along its length will run two parallel moving platforms, similar to the one on which the company's product is now put together. At one end this assembly will start with the bare unpainted frames. From the other, completed cars will roll out to the testing track, under their own power.

There is nothing new or experimental in any step of this assembly. It will be merely a reproduction in duplex of the system which has been successfully in use for more than six months. Designed by Production Manager Charles Adams to the general ideas of President Flanders of the Maxwell Company—himself a veteran in quantitative manufacturing lines—the present Maxwell platform was originally rated as able to care for a production of 160 cars a day. In the stress of summer and fall necessities, this platform is now turning out more than 250 cars daily. Its record is 286.

Mile More of Loading Dock.
The Oakland Ave. tract on which the main Maxwell plants are situated includes 50 acres, more than 12 of which are covered with buildings, driveways and railroad sidings.

The Maxwell interests also control the adjoining property on which the Gray Motor Co. is located, and operate a large part of the main building there as a motor factory.

acres when "the old folks got thru." Maybe he was one of those wandering workers who followed the har-vest from the south on up to the last farm this side of the Canada line. He may have been a "piker" who told strange tales of driving six horses with one line "back yonder in Wash'n't'n County, Mar'lan on the Dale'mor' n Ohio pike near the barn where the man was killed," unsophisticated and ignorant. If so his ignorance faded and he finally learned to drive a team with two reins and understand western farming. And later he owned a farm of his own and had cattle and horses on half a dozen hills. For he learned thrift back in "Mar'land," where $12 a month had been big wages and a day's work a long one.

Perhaps, if we could find the old-fashioned farmer and the old-fashioned farmer's old-fashioned wife and daughters we should find the old-fashioned hired man near; for he had that old fashion of fidelity.

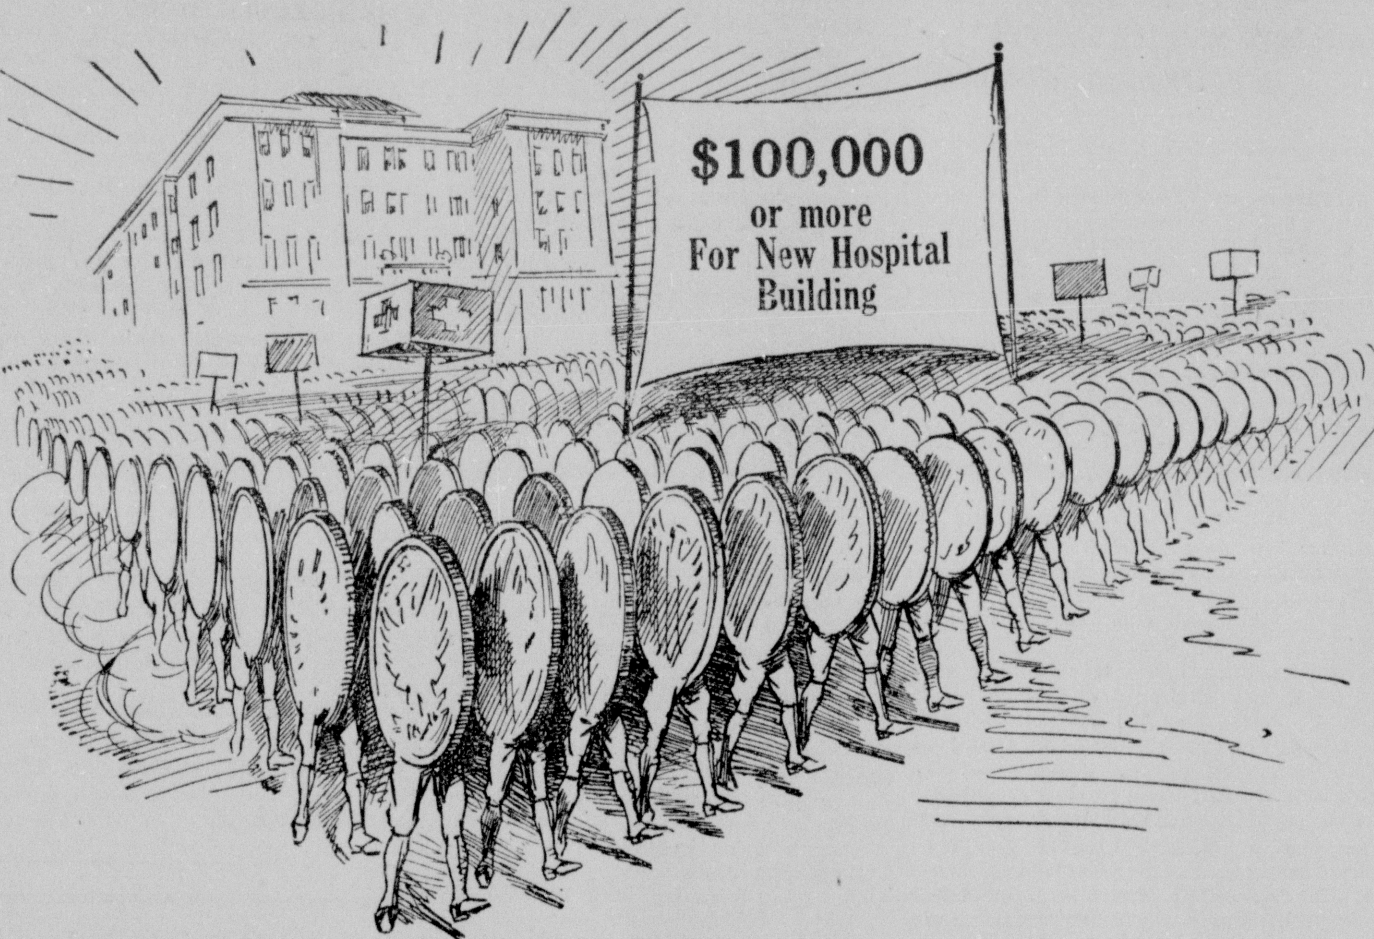

The author of the above article certain errs in one respect and that is wages for he should quote what is paid men before the war when $10 and $12 a month was top with possibly $16 thru harvest or for transient 65 cents and a dollar a day in harvest and fifty cents for other work.

Corn took an upward turn yesterday and May was quoted at seventy cents. The farmers who sold at fifty and even a bit less are sorry but no one can tell just what is best. Reports from Iowa are discouraging and as that state is a rival of Illinois in the production of corn and as low lands in this state are falling short men with a good lot of the grain on hand feel like holding on a bit.

Our County Agents.

It is new and its growth has been extremely rapid, but it continues to be popular among farmers where it has been started. From nothing just a few years ago it has grown until now we have more than one county agent to every three counties in the United States, and if their salaries average $400 a year they are being paid in salaries alone over a million and a half dollars, a considerable sum of which comes out of the pockets of the farmers themselves.

The majority of the county agents are in the south and their salaries are lower than in the North and West. The future of the work no man can tell. We can see no reason why, if carried on in a practical manner, it should not continue to grow until practically the entire country is covered. Unusually rapid growth is always likely to meet with some serious setbacks, "growing pains," if there be such, and those in charge of county agent work have large responsibilities to see that inexperienced men do not do foolish things that could be used to discredit the whole work. Generally everybody has been boosting but eventually the "hole picker" will arrive. The annual gathering of the State Leaders, such as was held recently, will do much to specify legitimate lines of work and create an understanding of them that will be useful. It should be remembered that even as yet, with over 1,100 county agents on the job, the work is in the experimental stage, so far as farmers are concerned. Even if farmers desire to hire and pay their own man it will be best for him to be to a certain extent subject to the "advisory supervision" of state and national leaders so that he may not go off on a tangent and hurt the work of everywhere. We believe the good county agent is a mighty useful citizen, and we shall endeavor to say anything that will make him more useful. If any minor mistakes are made we can afford to overlook them. It is surprising that a good many mistakes have not been made in this new field that has grown in a few years beyond any man's dream.—The Farmers' Review, Chicago.

TELLS OF CONDITIONS IN SOUTH DURING RECENT STORM

John M. Redmond, formerly of this city and now of Chicago, was in the city yesterday visiting his old time friend, Lee P. Allcott and others. Mr. Redmond travels thru Texas and New Mexico for the house which he gives a rosy account of prospects in that region. He says the cotton crop is hardly up to average but good prices enable the planters to get good returns from their fields and then as they are learning to carry their products more and plant food crops also the results are for good.

He says so many consumptives formerly went to San Antonio that the authorities of that city shut the doors against them as their death rate there so raised the rate that the city gained an unenviable reputation but smaller places have been fitted up with special view to receive and look after those afflicted with lung trouble so that amends are made for the action of the larger city.

He says any kind of climate almost may be found in the great state of Texas tho the people on the southern border are sensitive regarding the reputation they have for heat. He says the first trip he made thru that region the people assured him the heat was exceptional but when he went back next year the exception still proved to be the rule and he told them they were a set of prevaricators.

He gives a graphic account of the condition of things during the great flood and tidal wave which struck Galveston. He says after the storm he saw, as he traveled along the railroads hosts of dead bodies of cattle floated against the wire fences and says it was reported that some localities were left with no stock at all.

Houston suffered fearfully from the storm and so did Texas City while Galveston was inundated badly. He says the fact that less than ten deaths occurred was due to the heroic conduct of the men in the signal service stations. They found the storm was coming and sent the alarm all over the island and ordered people to seek places of safety. The men worked fifty-four hours without rest and were entitled to all praise. Doubtless the sea wall was a great protection and they are considering raising it a few feet.

One man said the water in his store was eighteen inches higher than during the other inundation but still the results were not so bad. To save his wife and daughter he waded in water up to his neck and carried them on his shoulders to a place of safety.

The people of Galveston were determined to clean up the evidence of the flood before they would admit visitors to the city as many would come from morbid curiosity to take kodak pictures of the ruins and give the city a bad name. All railroads were out of commission and the only way to get there was by way of Houston and Texas City by boat. Persons who convince the mayor of Houston that they had a legitimate reason for going could get a pass from him which would probably induce the captain of the boat to admit them on board. Mr. Redmond had a number of customers in the city and his honest face and straight-story induced the mayor to give him a pass but his cases of samples were obstacles hard to overcome. He reached Texas City all right and the next thing was to get on board the boat. He finally persuaded the captain to let him on but he would have to get his baggage on the best he could and this he finally succeeded in doing and found Galveston in better shape than he expected.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE J. B. C. CONTEST

Good Records are Made Tuesday Evening at First Event of Its Kind This Year.

Miss Katie Clarkson was first in the typewriting contest for accuracy, making but one error in five minutes of writing at a thirty word per minute speed. In the spelling contest Claude Jewsbury was first. And in the calculation contest for accuracy there was a draw. Ella Dwyer, Harold McGinnis, Russell McDonald and Frank Bergschneider finishing with the same claim for first. In the calculation speed contest Ella Dwyer was first and in the transcription contest Miss Katie Clarkson held first rank. Team No. 1 of which Amer Johnson is captain, finished first, with 3579 total points. Miss Nello Clampt's team No. 2 held second place at the close with 2189 points, while Horace Goodell's team with 1639 points was third.

AT THE GRAND.

The Jacksonville citizen who said some time ago that "The Only Girl" was the best musical production that they had ever seen was credited with good judgment by the audience which assembled at the Grand Opera House last night. To say that the book is by Henry Blossom and the music by Victor Herbert is equivalent to guaranteeing the high class of entertainment.

The story which forms the basis of this delightful comedy is from Frank Mandel's comedy, "Our Wives." There are three acts and an overture and music of the catchy kind runs through. When "The Only Girl" was first staged in New York it met with instantaneous favor and the success achieved in the big eastern city was duplicated elsewhere. The story concerns a young author who has won fame as a writer of comic operas and who is seeking a composer to aid him in his work. He has always been known as a woman hater.

One evening he hears strains of a violin from an apartment over his own and the music so appeals to his artistic sense that he feels certain that he has located the one who can aid him to advantage in his musical work. A servant is dispatched to bring the player to him and great is his discomfiture when he finds that the musician is a young girl. But because of the great mass of work at hand, he decided to make a contract with her on the strictest business basis. Of course a love affair follows and there are other interesting developments which serve to make the plot about which the tuneful musical selections are entwined.

The Joe Wagner company which presented "The Only Girl" here, includes Franklin Farnum, Regina Richards, Elsie Bird, Janet McIlwaine, Russell Lennon and others of equal note, in addition to a splendid and pretty chorus. The opera house management furnished Jacksonville theatre goers with a very high class musical play when "The Only Girl" was booked.

CHARLES CAMPBELL AGAIN IN CLUTCHES OF LAW

Word from Springfield tells of the arrest of Charles Campbell on the charge of criminal assault on a 14 year old school girl. Campbell has a local police record having been sent from here to the reformatory at Pontiac about four years ago on a statutory charge. Campbell evidently is determined to break into Chester as he is now old enough to be sent to the penitentiary.

Campbell while here sang at a local theater and when in jail used to entertain the prisoners with his singing. He usually sang in the evening. He was possessed of a good voice and many residents were wont to gather in the vicinity of the jail in the evening to hear him sing.

The Springfield News-Record says: "Sobbing pitifully, Margaret Healy, a little fourteen year old school girl of 1138 West Elliott avenue, who was reported lost Monday night, today told authorities that she had been kept a prisoner in a room at the Brunswick hotel by Charles Campbell all night. Campbell was arrested this morning on a warrant charging criminal assault. John Healy the girl's brother, made the complaint.

"Campbell admitted being with the girl, and told the police that he wanted to marry her. He lives at Eighteenth and Oak streets. When arrested he was on his way to the girl's home."
